NAILUL IMTIHANY

/na.i.lul/

Is a final year product design student at Institut Teknologi Sepuluh Nopember. Highly interested in user experience research, and have been studying in various areas of design such as product design, graphic design, & photography. As young designer, I am adaptable to communicate with team, learn new things, and sharing knowledge. I am currently looking for a job that related with my skills and experiences on design field. I'd be happy if you interested with my design work and get opportunity to be hired in your company.
