

Ronny Jiero
Curriculum Vitae

HELLO!

Hi there! My name is Ronny Jiero and I am a fresh graduate with bachelor degree in design from Petra Christian Unversity. My skill set includes advertising (specifically art directing), branding, editorial design, illustration, and typography.

I believe a great work can be achieved with solid teamwork and I love to meet and work with others. That is why I have joined many events as a commitee and several student organizations during my college days.

2011

First Year at Universitas Kristen Petra

2012

Joining HIMAVISTRA

HIMAVISTRA is a student council that represents visual communication design students of Petra Christian University.

I have been given chances to take part as a committee in several events when I was still an active member in the council. Some of them includes being the head of freshmen welcoming event committee.

2013

Joining PERSMA

PERSMA is a journalist organization of Petra Christian University. They publish "Genta" magazine in every three months and distributed them to every faculty in the university.

I took part as a layouter and I was responsible for the visual concept and layout composition for four editions of the "Genta" magazines.

2014

Internship at Matari Advertising

Matari Advertising is an ad agency in Indonesia. I have been given the chance to work as an intern graphic designer in this company from June 2014 to August 2014.

2015

Graduation

Finished four years of study with 3.56 GPA and my final project was selected for Adiwarna exhibition.
