I'm starting from collect toys, till I'm feeling bored cause lot of series, when I think this's will never ever ending series. I thinking to create my own toys, more than toys but it's artToys. From basicly I'm sketch some idea or what my imagine in my head, and finally for first I create my Arttoys called "KungPow", KungPow is describe me about friendship, adventure lover, and dreamer. and then more character after kungpow came into real, like "BigBruno, Driad, Uncle Bruno, Bento, Break".

Beside create some ArtToys, I'm doing custom from blank ArtToys by others artist/company for Collector's ArtToy. You will find my signature in any Custom ArtToys or my toys is "oXo", that's like symbol for strategies in life, struggle, passion, and never give up", and for painting many I'm using green and monochrome

Green representation me about fresh, loveEarth, and monochrome is feeling like simple life, rise up from pain, new hope.
