

ABOUT ME

I always believe that God never created a failure creation. Neither human nor a scenario. Even though I was studying about something that not related with creative industry, it doesn't mean I can't take a chance to competing. In fact, this creative world could fit in any subject for example in education. Education needs something which attracts more students to know more and more.

I am willing to learn and to work hard to get everything I want. I love traveling, drawing, painting and discovering something new or something with another point of view. I am more an introvert person that needs space to work but I love to socialize with my friends.

I also have good communication skills like presenting, teaching and giving motivation. I like to work on a team who is willing to work hard.
