HYPOCRISY

John Eccleston made a mess of his life once and then got it together. He married the "right" woman, became a pastor, and settled in a small town. He knows the difference between right and wrong, but the problem is...he just doesn't feel it. He goes through the motions and does what he's supposed to do...but...when no one can see he also does what...and who he really wants to do. One might ask, "Who is that masked man?" when he preaches in front of the church. No one knows until the mask comes off.

Not even he knows.

His wife, Anne, married the "right" man and settled into her role as a pastor's wife and made babies. On the outside, she's all smiles, but inside...not so much.

This story is completely fictional...but is it? Or, is it happening all over America every day? And, who will get the happy ending?

You may be surprised...

Leilyn Fields Mac is afraid of the dark, which is a sad irony considering her certain but undiagnosed ancestral ties to Transylvasia. Modern medicine (some call it coffee) aids her as she fights normality by being awake during the day. Her friends complain that she often is too weary when she writes to them and she often takes this Facebook status and

THE STRUGGLE IS REAL

FINALLY BREAK THE DIETING CYCLE, TRANSFORM YOUR MIND & BODY, AND EVOLVE INTO THE PERSON YOU HAVE ALWAYS WANTED TO BE

HERE'S TO US

Here's to ordering a salad when you really want a burger and fries
 To working out for exercise in the gym, like no one is watching and you, blasting your favorite music!
 To drinking more water than seems possible
 To giving one more rep or five minutes more cardio when your body is telling you MWOOD
 To working out twice as hard as all the genetically blessed people
 To falling in love with the real you, the you that you really are and the you that you want to become
 To looking in the mirror and not seeing AMF Champs, throwing on your running shoes and hitting the gym anyway to go about it!

Here's to health food, muscle cramps, sweat and perspiration, sore muscles, stinky gym clothes, & a.h. training, faded cardio, falling down and getting back up
 And here's to getting up tomorrow and doing it all over again...

Yes, we want you to repeat, every single day
 To saying Screw You to the Old You and NEVER going back

THE STRUGGLE IS REAL, BUT I AM STRONGER!

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Robb D'Angelo, Karol Brandt-Gilmartin, and Robby D'Angelo are fitness enthusiasts and authors of the book 'The Struggle is Real'. They share their personal experiences and insights on how to break the dieting cycle and transform one's mind and body.
