Working with me :

Hardworking & ambitious : I will not give up on what I want easily, as long as I have the time and energy, I will do my best and strive for it.

Socialization : I like to meet new people and I feel happy if I can do good things for them and they also feel happy in return.

Versatile : I may not directly master my new tasks, but I am willing to learn and adapt. I will accept any advice given since I want to gain more experience and improve myself both mentally and emotionally.

Time-Management : I would definitely organize my plans beforehand and I am committed to what I have decided to be in part of. One last thing about working with me ; I hate to be late.
