The Secret of Martabak Manis
(sweet martabak)

Martabak Manis

also known as "Kue Terang Bulan" (moon-lit cake), is a rich-flavour pancake-like sweet dish which is very popular in Indonesia. Usually made by street vendors in the evening, it is pan-cooked, using a specially shaped iron.

After cooking, the pancake is topped with a lot of butter or margarine and a variety of toppings according to the customers' taste. The two major classic are Chocolate and Cheese.

What's inside the dough?

- ½ cup wheat flour
- ¼ teaspoon baking powder
- ¼ cup granulated sugar
- ¼ teaspoon instant yeast
- 2 eggs
- 2 tablespoon butter or margarine
- ¼ cup sweetened condensed milk
- ½ cup water
- 1 teaspoon vanilla powder/paste
- ¼ teaspoon salt
